"Bacon House"

This residence was built in 1850 (approximately) for Captain Henry D. Bacon, and was purchased by William Morrison, a prominent lumberman between the years 1850 and 1860. The present owner is Arthur Klittich.

This is a three and one-half story brick building. New Orleans style residence. The porches are richly decorated with filigree iron work. This building has often been called the "Lace House" because of the effect of this decoration.

The building is now used as a tenement house.

Information received from the St. Louis Post Dispatch.
